

Georgiana Baker

bakerg@stat.sc.edu

Education

- 1969 Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, Adelphi University
- 1984 MBA in Finance, St. John's University
- 1996 Masters of Science in Statistics, University of South Carolina

Experience

- 2002-Present Instructor, Assistant to Chair, Graduate Coordinator
Department of Statistics, University of South Carolina
 - Coordinate and teach statistics course for Engineers,
 - Teach Statistical Quality Control Course (Local and Distance),
 - Teach Introductory course for graduate students in non-quantitative disciplines (Local and Distance).
 - Administrate MS, MIS, CAS and PhD Graduate Programs
 - Schedule courses and perform various administrative functions for the department

- 1999-2002 Quality Manager, BC Components
Columbia, SC
 - Managed ISO 9000 Quality System
 - Managed Incoming Inspection, Life Testing, and Process Engineering functions.
 - Managed Supplier Audits

- 1996-1999 Plant Statistician, BC Components
Columbia, SC
 - Initiated and managed Statistical Process Control throughout the plant.
 - Assisted Process Engineers with statistical studies.
 - Assisted Product Developers with statistical studies.
 - Generated regular and on-request statistical reports.

- 1994-1996 Graduate Student (TA), University of South Carolina
Columbia, SC

- 1990-1994 Instructor, Radford University
Department of Business
 - Taught Introduction to Computer Information Systems
 - Taught Software applications

- 1989-1990 Part Time Instructor, Dabney Lancaster Community College
Clifton Forge, Va
 - Taught software applications and math classes.

- 1987-1989 Instructor, Dowling College
 Oakdale, NY
 - Taught various Computer Information Processing courses.
- 1984-1987 Systems Manager and VP, Goldman Sachs
 New York, NY
 - Managed trading systems.
- 1972-1984 Chase Manhattan Bank
 New York, NY
 - Held positions from programmer to VP and Division Executive in Chase
 Computer Operations.
- 1969-1972 Teacher, West Hempstead Middle School
 West Hempstead, NY
 - Taught math and science.